

Welcome to the World of the Kerala Backwaters

“...One of the nicest rooms we stayed in throughout our month in India, fantastic home cooking, all set right on the backwaters in a coconut grove. My partner spent the day in a hammock which our host had erected for him on the edge of the water - a truly relaxing place in a country village...” A genuine customer comment as appeared in Responsibletravel.com

Welcome to Gramam, the welcoming homestay situated near the historic Fort Kochi & on the banks of a secluded portion of the backwater lagoon at Kumbalangi.

An exclusive retreat for those who wish to discover the famed beauty of Kerala. The homestay set amidst a coconut grove promises a taste of the essence of Kerala, her rich village life, excellent Keralan cuisine & most of all peace and serenity !

The home is spacious and friendly. Jos & Lyma, your charming hosts are totally dedicated to ensure all your comforts are taken care for: crisp linen, comfortable lodgings, ethnic or continental breakfast and individual attention. The specially prepared sit-out facing the beautiful waters is a retreat into serenity & peace.

At Gramam there are 2 bedrooms with en-suite shower & toilet. These are twin bed rooms meant for a family of two, and children are most welcome !

Gramam is an hour's drive from Cochin International airport and near to the rail station & bus stations. If you give us prior intimation, we will have you picked up on arrival.

For reservations, please contact Jos Byju for availability of accommoation. You can book your rooms after payment of 50 % advance.
